Public Will Discuss Proposed Park District At Meeting Sept. 24

Eleven candidates have filed for the five commissioners' positions for the proposed Mitchell park district.

Residents of an 8.8 square-mile district in Granite City voted this fall to vote from 6 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 28, at the Old Parish Hall on whether or not to establish the park district.

Candidates for commissioners will be on the same ballot.

In alphabetical order they are:

Harold R. Bremer, 553 English place; Franklin Delano Chapman, 635 Tennessee avenue; James W. Corey, 620 English place; Roy H. Green, 112 Springfield drive; George Grotz, 120 Kinnickinnic Chouteau road;

Boyd Presley, Rural Route One; John E. Sands, 1011 East Chain of Rocks road; Otis Charles Schleboe, 4938 North Marion street; Milt Sauer, 912 East Chain of Rocks road; John Windfall, 511 Fleming place, and Edward C. Young, 665 Chouteau avenue.

Sixty-four and Sparks filed shortly before the deadline at 5 p.m. Thursday.

One Petition Not Returned

One petition, issued to William E. Kuehnel, 644 Ashland street, was not returned.

A public hearing has been scheduled for 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 24, at the Mitchell School gymnasium. All 11 candidates have been invited to appear and answer questions about the park district.

A film on advantages of a park district will be shown. The same film was shown to about 100 persons Tuesday night at the Mitchell PTA meeting.

"Things were pretty bleak when we started out on this thing, but I think our chances are improving. I'd say new we have a 50-50 chance."

The association has been pushing hard for the district, emphasizing Mitchell's need for family picnic areas, children's play areas and athletic and soccer fields. There are also hopes of erecting a community center.

An opposition to the park district has come mainly from residents living in the area.

Opposition to the proposed tax levy and tax rate can yet be established but state law holds the rate to a maximum of five cents per $100 assessed value.

The county clerk's office has emphasized that only residents of the proposed park area are eligible to vote. The area is bounded on the south by the Chouteau township line, on the west by Illinois Route 111, on the north by a line in the middle of townships sections 20 through 23 and on the east by the Chain of Rocks canal.

Venice-Madison Pre-GED Test This Week

Venice and Madison residents aged 21 or older should take pre-entrance examinations this week if they plan to enroll in a general education development course opening Monday, Sept. 30, at the Venice city hall.

It was announced today at the Illinois State Employment Office, 2nd and Main streets, the scene of the tests—that they will be given each day this week, to-during Friday, at 2 p.m.

Both day and evening classes are to be started Sept. 30 and application forms are available at the ISSES office at the time the pre-entrance test is given.

2 Local Men Found Guilty Of Violating State Narcotic Act

(Special from Springfield)

A verdict of guilty was handed down Thursday afternoon by a Sangamon county circuit court jury in a state narcotics case involving Fred W. Honerkamp, 52, of Granite City, and Gerald T. May, 25, of Madison.

The men were charged with selling a quart of SSS, a state narcotics division agent for drugs which they had bought for themselves.

However, the charges also pointed out the two Quad-Cityans failed to turn over the drug to the agent. On July 8, the first day of their trial, the mistrial was declared because of an affidavit based on inflammatory testimony by a state agent.

Supreme Court Upholds Decision In City Court

(Special from Springfield)

The Illinois Supreme Court has upheld a decision by the Southern Railroad Co. to leave to file a petition to mandamus Granite City Judge Fred P. Schuman to transfer a $68,000 in state circuit court. The railroad claimed the city court lacked jurisdiction, that the company had no railroad operation in Granite City.

The lower court held against a venue motion. Judge Schuman ruled the railroad, while it had no operation in Granite City, did have some business there for the purpose of soliciting business and that this solicitation constituted "doing of business" sufficient to justify no change of venue.

The personal injury suit was by Paul F. Estes Jr., Knoxville, Tenn., who sought damages for injuries and for costs resulting from an accident he claims occurred in the Knoxville yards on July 6, 1959, where he was employed as a car cleaner. The accident happened as he fell and tripped over an old door end of a gondola car.

Although the accident happened in another state, Estes filed under the Federal Employers Liability Act on May 7, 1962. The suit charged that the fall resulted from a negligent act of the railroad and subsequent to the accident he attended to his customary affairs and business.

In denying the motion of the railroad for a change of venue to an Illinois circuit court, Schuman said the railroad has a western traffic office in St. Louis, Mo., and sales offices in Kansas, Colorado, Wyoming, Utah, and the southern half of Illinois, and that he contact in Granite City and Marion county was the same as in other areas for contacting potential shippers and receivers to use its facilities.

50¢ Fire Damage To Auto

A fire in the back seat caused $50 damage to the 1956 station wagon of William Price, 1546 Seventh street, Madison, about 5:10 p.m. Saturday at Bellmore Village shopping center. Firemen from the Nameoki road station said the fire was caused either from flares or matches.

C. Of C. Issues Warning On Furnace Repair Gyp

The Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce said today some furnace repair firms continue to use high-pressure "scare tactics to get homeowners to sign contracts for new furnace installations.

Harold Dobry, manager of the local Chamber, noted that the vast majority of local firms in the furnace servicing field deals fairly with the public but said a small group of unscrupulous hucksters despite the fact that its activities have been widely exposed. Homeowners should be particularly wary of out-of-town firms working the area, he said.

Alerting homeowners to the scheme at a time when repairmen are likely to be doing cleaning jobs, the Chamber said these firms have no serious intent to repair the furnace but use this ruse to gain access to the installation.

Tear Down Furnace

This accomplished, the favorite technique is to tear down the furnace, remove the heating coil and assert that the furnace is cracked and in dangerous condition. If the furnace is used again, the homeowner will feel certain death from carbon-monoxide poisoning.

Such tactics, often combined with high-pressure selling, often frighten homeowners into signing contracts for new furnace installations, Dobry said.

GC Bus Driver Robbed Of $61 In St. Louis

Martin Jerry Arbeiter, 54, a bus driver for 17 years, entered his home last Wednesday night on the Bi-State Trans-blvd. run the Bi-State Trans-

System.

Arbeiter said he was threatened by a teenage bandit, who showed no weapon, but had a hand in his pocket and threatened to "blow your brains out."

The bandit entered the bus after Arbeiter had checked and discharged all passengers, took $61 from the driver, including $4 of Arbeiter's own money. He also carried off the money bag which belonged to the driver.

After fleeing the bus, the bandit is believed to have jumped into a late-model sports car which sped by the bus after the teenager had run down the street.

Arbeiter, a former Illinois Transportation Co. bus driver, has been on the Goodfellow route about two months.

Two weeks ago, a youthful rider attempted to "lift" Arbeiter's wallet, which he was carrying in a shirt pocket.

"I explained to him that a dealer of known repute, avoiding firms that use high-pressure sales tactics or 'bait' advertising, furnace repairs and replacement," he said.

"The National Better Business Bureau with which the local Chamber of Commerce is affiliated, and many other consumers protect themselves against the racket by following these common-sense rules:

"1. Do not let anyone with a dealer of known repute, avoiding firms that use high-pressure sales tactics or 'bait' advertising, furnace repairs and replacement," he said.

"2. Have the servicing done when the furnace is not needed, avoid paying high fees demanded later on.

"3. Request the credentials of anyone who represents himself as a 'furnace inspector.' Govern-

1964 PICK-UP, one member of a new line of Chevrolet trucks which are being shown for the first time today at Mathews Chevrolet Co., 1511 Niedringhaus avenue. Three heavy duty diesel models and four new forward control square-front models have been added to the 1964 line.

1964 Chevrolet Trucks Go On Display Here

Chevrolet's new line of 1964 trucks were on display today, at Mathews Chevrolet Co., 1511 Niedringhaus avenue, according to company president Milton Mathews.

Basically unchanged in appearance from last year, the 1964 trucks feature numerous minor changes and improvements, with the addition of three diesel models in the heavy duty tandem line and four new square-front forward control three-quarter ton and one ton van models.

Self-adjusting brakes, a 6000-mile front suspension lubrication interval and lower transmission ratios—tuners are featured on most half and two-thirds-ton models.

A larger, more powerful engine will be included in the Corvair line with horsepower upped for 80 to 95.

Re-engineering of the Chevrolet truck line, begun in 1960, is virtually complete, according to Mathews. The changes, designed to add to driver comfort, reduce maintenance, extend the life of certain components and make for more efficient performance, were the chief points of redesign for 1964.

Chevrolet's automobile line for 1964, including the new Chevelle, will go on display on Sept. 26.

Rich On Committee To Resolve Tax Problems

Ernest "Pat" Rich, Granite City tax collector, has been named to a committee of townships and county treasurers to try to resolve some difficulties experienced this year with tax forms.

The five-man committee is to meet with Musso at his office at 2 p.m. Thursday to start the problem.

The tax bill sent to residents comes due June 1 due date payable at the office of the county treasurer. In many instances, however, the tax bills were not ready for mailing by June 1 and tax payers were given an extended time in which to pay their bills locally.

Rich provided a notice with his bill listing the deadline in which the taxes could be paid here. But many residents returned their bills and checks to the county treasurer's office, for which the local tax collectors received no credit.

Granite City received a 2% fee for collecting his bills.

Also admitted here there have been some misunderstandings and differences of opinion this year between his office and various township collectors. The differences were discussed at a meeting in Edwardsville Thursday. Rich was unable to attend having had a previous engagement.

Speeding Charged

Earl Spiebel, 38, of DeSoto, Mo., was arrested at 11:25 p.m. Thursday at 25th and Madison avenue on a charge of speeding. He was released on $11 cash bail.

Mercer Pounds Pocahontas 11-2 In First Round Of I-C Playoffs; Hearts Lose 7-6

Mercer Funeral Home served notice that it will be a tough competitor in following round of the Southwestern Illinois Inter-City Baseball league post-season playoffs yesterday by bombing out 11-2 over Pocahontas 11-2 at Wilson Park. But Sacred Heart, which had fought its way into the cup section, including Troy's Redbirds, Friday night in the third-place-playoff, bowed out yesterday at Maryville where the host Red Sox claimed a tie-breaking run in the bottom of the ninth for a 7-6 win.

Braves Eliminated

The Pocahontas setback, accomplished behind a 15-1 hit, was the result of the club's third-pitching of Bob Vitter and Harry Kofahl, eliminated the Braves, who had won the President Vernon Lucas playoff cup for the past three years.

Mercer salted away its 16th victory in 22 games with a six-run fifth inning, highlighted by Don Schubert's three-run homer with two outs.

Run Up 10-2 Lead Early

Tripled by Bob Jones and Kofahl, coupled with base hits by Jim Clegg, Jim Tamm and Charles Johannmeyer, accounted for the other three runs and gave Mercer a 10-2 lead at this point.

Vetter tossed the first 4½ innings and was the winner, giving up five hits. Kofahl blanked the Braves on three hits thereafter, and drove in two runs with his bat.

Crabtree, who drove home four runs in the eighth, paced the first team in the first with a sacrifice fly. Rich Branding's single made it 2-1 in the first against Jose Pineda, Pocahontas' pitcher.

Johannmeyer's triple and steal of second was followed by a pair of sacrifices to give Mercer its third run in the third. Two walks, a double by Schubert and Vetter made it 4-2 in the fourth and set the stage for the winner's big fifth frame.

Innings End

The Hearts ended the tying run in the eighth against Maryville, but the Sox reached relief pitcher Dan Reilly for the decisive last inning. Jim Eanes started for the Hearts and left with a 5-4 lead.

Pat Keefe went all the way for the Redbirds, allowing only 12 hits. Maryville backed him with errorless ball afied, however. Sacred Heart finished with a 10-4 season record.

Hoskins Brothers' Act Rings Down Opening Night Curtain On Trojans

The big-and-little brother act of Bob and Jim Hoskins stepped out of the wings at Madison Friday night to lead Edwardsville's Tigers to a convincing 46-12 victory over the undisciplined, two-win Trojans.

Bob, a bruising 220-pound fullback, ran for three scores, while smaller (170 pounds) brother Jim, who also plays fullback, was on the receiving and of two scoring passes, one heaved by EHS quarterback Rich Noll and the other tossed by Madison's Gary Skinner which Hoskins picked off and ran back 37 yards for a TD.

Roundout out the scoring for the Trojans was a hard-charging EHS line which covered 40 yards and was able to hold Summers all alone with a touchdown heave after four minutes of the second period had elapsed.

Bob Hoskins, starting good blocking from the heavy weight and often dragging three tacklers with him after being tackled, went 10 yards for the visitors' first score just before half. Brother Jim ran in the extra point for a 33-6 halftime bulge.

A Trojan bobble at the 40 gave EHS the ball and a score in the first quarter six yards later. Bob Hoskins bungled a throw from Jim Ponel and the ball bounced in the end zone with the extra point pass, and it was 19-0 Edwardsville almost before you could say "Hold that Tiger." Skinner, who completed only 10 of 22 passes, took a look at reserves.

The Trojans made the final score 46-12 when Jim Ponel, who had been 17 yards apart earlier in the quarter, found the end zone with two minutes left.

Spalding Wins Both Heats Of Title Race

Granite City's Wib Spalding easily won both heats of a 200-lap championship main event for modified and amateur stock cars Saturday night at the Tri-City Speedway, pocketing $1000 prize money in the process.

The race program went slow due to a large number of pull-offs and slowdowns. No one Lardi of Granite City and Tom Oliver of East St. Louis were treated at St. Elizabeth for minor injuries after flipping their cars.

Two other fender class cars ended up on their tops, but the drivers were not reported to be injured. All drivers who participated in the program, which paid a guaranteed $3500 to the contestants.

The wedding of Miss Janice Reed, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reed, 1701 Kirkpatrick Homes, and Walter Wise, a son of Mrs. Mildred Wise, 55 Venice Homes, Venice, took place Saturday evening at the Tri-City Tabernacle.

The ceremony was performed at 7:30 o'clock by Rev. R. D. Shaw. The bride's parents held a reception afterward at Kirkpatrick Tabernacle.

Greenery decorated the sanctuary and candles and greenery marked the aisle through which the wedding procession passed, the bride escorted by her father.

Mrs. R. D. Shaw presided at the organ and accompanied the soloist, Mrs. Barbara Stevens, as she sang "Together," "The Pathway We Trod" and "The Wedding Prayer."

The bride's gown was of satin peau de soie and lace. It was styled on princess lines with a scoop neck and camelot sleeves. Crystals, pearls and sequins trimmed the front of the dress and the skirt terminated in a cathedral train. A single cabbage rose and a bow marked the waist line at the back, and a rectangular plumeria and illusion veil. Snowdrift "mums" made up the cascade bouquet carried by the bride.

Miss Carol Raft, a sister of the bride, was matron of honor, serving with three bridesmaids. Mrs. Claude Black, Miss Betty Wynn, and Miss Diane Cruise, led the attendants of the bride. Sandy Pebbles and Jeffrey Cruise, another cousin, were flower girl and ring bearer.

The honor attendant was in a dress of dark apricot with a

The bride's mother selected a

25 YEARS AGO

The following items were taken from the files of the Granite City Press-Record

SEPT. 15, 1938

A group of Tri-Cityans formed to protect the Horseshoe Lake park project was told Monday afternoon that petitions asking for a public hearing and an election on the proposition will probably be filed Friday with Circuit Judge Dick Martin.

To promote the general promotion of the Horseshoe Lake project, the Tri-Cityans elected officers. They are P. M. Davidson, chairman; Fred Maloy, vice-chairman; Don Holloway, treasurer; and G. B. Ussery, secretary.

Supporters want the proposition to remain on the general election ballot of Nov. 6.

The Granite City grade school system operating costs and board charges amounted to $344,187 for the fiscal year which ended June 30, according to an audit just completed. This is $69 per pupil.

The last evening public library board last night decided to use its first allotment of library taxes, a partial settlement of $1000, for the purchase of 300 new books. This will up the number of books in the library to 1000.

In anticipation of PWA approval of an extensive building program at Wilson Park, the Granite City park board has instructed architects to draw plans. The ten-acre site will call for a community center, bathhouse, greenhouse and improvements on other equipment. Cost is expected to be between $60,000 and $80,000.

Roy Massey, president of the Associated Retailers, G. B. Ussery, secretary, and Bert Clegg, chairman of the board of directors of the Granite Trust and Savings Bank, and E. C. Campbell, who is a member of the board and represented by Lyndon Smith the desirability of a separate grade crossing over the railroad tracks when the new Oldenburg road is completed.

The delegation was with Smith for half a hour and returned very much pleased with the result of the visit and hopeful that a separate grade crossing will be constructed.

Edward G. Grosshong and Glen Bryant, both of Venice, left for Campion, where they will attend Illinois University. Grosshong is a senior and Bryant a freshman. Doris Grosshong is leaving today for Illinois State Normal University.

Bernice Bush reviewed "Habits and Customs of Women in Persia" at the first regular meeting of the Blue Bonnet Reading Club.

MEN, WE CANNOT FIND EVEN PART-TIME WORK

To the Editor:

Talk about discrimination, I agree with the letter by "Put Out to Pasture." My wife, 57 years old, has lived, gone to school, worked and paid taxes in Granite City for 30 years; has been unemployed for three years; and cannot get a job on account of her age—not even washing dishes.

I know numerous people who have good five-day jobs and who have no work at all.

If I had a part-time job in the morning and evening, I would have the same as a full-time job. I am a single man, head with a little pride, not depending on my wife for everything. Perhaps I should get me a sign and conduct my own sit-in or lie-down demonstration.

SAYS YEAR TERM NOT ENOUGH IN BOY'S DEATH

To the Editor:

First of all, I will introduce myself as a long-time resident of Granite City, when a child and still a teenager, a taxpayer for about 15 years.

I am an aunt of the young 15-year-old boy who was so brutally hit and killed last week. To the Editor: I wonder what kind of lawmakers you have for them to give him just one year punishment. May he rest in peace. His meals served in bed. Then he won't have any ill feelings toward the one who sent him away.

People with children live in fear of drunken drivers. A year for every tear that has fallen over the death of our boy would have been too light a sentence.

In the 63 years of life, this has been the most disgusting verdict of which I have had the misfortune of hearing. I could say more, but it would not look good in print.

CHRISTIANS NEED NOT SUPPORT INTEGRATION

To the Editor:

I would like to express my opinion to Concerned Citizen. I think there are plenty of Christians in Granite City. I don't think they are wrong because Still Sits The Schoolhouse...

By JOHN W. ALLEN

Southern Illinois University
A school day poem begins with "Still sits the schoolhouse by the road, a ragged beggar sunning." A scant few of them still do.

People may speak of vanishing institutions. Concerning the country school perhaps it would be better to say "vanished." Here and there one finds the occasional rural school building that has been converted to a farmer's storage space or into a residence. Some others have been all furnished, remain with their windows and doors gone, walls warped and doors sagging, surrounded by weeds, briars and bushes. They are almost gibbons.

To younger people they are simply little buildings well on their way toward disappearance. To others, who attach more than a casual interest, they call to mind a departed way of life.

Some Still Living Much Longer

Some will recall the days of the ending place of mile-long morning plods over muddy or dusty roads. This was through fair or foul weather, winter and summer, rain and sleet, snow and sun, school seldom kept. 25 notations later, It was a busy day.

Ages ranged from the five-year-olds, who had now aged to 20, to those as old as much as 20 years old. It was a motley bunch. At one time Hardscrab had an enrollment of 81 such pupils, enough boys to

FHA Introduces New 'Flexible' Procedure

Roy E. Yager, director of the Federal Housing Administration for the downtown area (63 counties), announced in Springfield today that effective Monday, Sept. 16, a new procedure will make a new flexible procedure for making compliance inspections on homes being built with FHA insured financing.

A detailed test of the new system in 10 FHA field offices has proved that it provides more efficient, thorough inspections and enables builders to follow the inspection process without incurring delays which sometimes occurred under the old inspection system.

Basically, the simplified inspection procedure works in this fashion: The builder makes no formal request for inspections at various stages; instead, he local FHA office of the approach of (1) completion of foundation excavation, (2) completion of framing, (3) completion of plumbing work installed and (4) completion of the house. FHA inspectors will make unannounced inspections at approximately 10 percent of the houses.

If an inspection reveals the need for corrective action, construction generally can continue while the inspection is being made. Corrective action resulting in reinspection may not be concealed until approved by the FHA inspector, but work not directly affected may continue.

form two baseball teams that form in the course of Mr. Pemberton's pasture beyond the road and rail fence.

The noonday recess was much like a picnic. Less hardy souls ate their meal, called dinner, at their desks in the schoolroom. The more rugged went outside, eating in the courthouse, after its firework, and against the risk of firework, before coal came.

Others ate alongside the schoolhouse or in the shelter of a rail fence corner. Those living within hearing distance often went home to lunch. Perhaps that accounts for the best miller I ever saw, a man of great skill.

School served as social and cultural centers. They were used for church services, for the Farmers' Club, and for polling places at election time. Strolling around with their lanterns, a new phonograph, and books of magic along, singing schools and even writing classes on a subscription basis were offered.

School life was not always an unrelenting grind. Friday afternoons sometimes were given over to camping, singing, spicing matches, recitations, declamations, songs and dialogues. In ciphering and spelling matches, pupils would pit each other to see who was best.

Friday nights often saw meetings of a Literary Society. Adults of the community and students of the school and occasionally took part. At these meetings "essays" were written and presented. There were readings and recitations that ranged from the seriously tear-jerking variety to those humorously commanding.

One boy tried valiantly, in several attempts, to write words to literally shake the walls with Shakespeare's lines saying, "Friends, Romans and countrymen, lend me your ears..." Ten years later this same boy heard one of the world's greatest actors do just that.

A debate with question stated and answer chosen well in advance often closed the program. Two favorite subjects are remembered. One was, "Resolved: That our present president is the most popular." The other, "Resolved: That the American Indian has been mistreated." Having at different times advocated and opposed the changes, confusion still reigns.

When a visiting school participated in a Friday night program, it usually was more exciting. Then the school was always welcome last day of school with its round of speeches and individual contests.

The country school has fallen into decay. Its blackboards are gone from the walls. The teacher desk and a few carved supply desks are broken. Shelves for the dinner pails and rows of nails for coats and caps have disappeared. No supplies of pointers are left on their racks. About all that remains is the steadily diminishing stock of oldsters' memories.

Were those days as pleasant as the stored memories or is it that only pleasant memories are stored?

Passes School Light

Mihail L. Dubash, 21, of 2411 Angelia Drive, was arrested Thursday on a charge of passing a blinking red school crossing light at 29th street and Madison avenue.

Mudge Studying Bids for SWIU Structure

Mechanical bids submitted for construction of science buildings on the Southern Illinois University campus were being investigated by Dick H. Mudge, Madison county state's attorney, who has been concerned with John Rendeman, Southern Illinois University attorney, regarding the bids which Rendeman said were as much as 58 higher than estimates.

Rendeman sent a file on the bids and procedures to Mudge for study. An investigation was called for by Arnold Maremont, president of the SIU board of trustees, when the bids were opened last month.

Talks between the two attorneys were delayed as first Mudge and Rendeman were away on vacation.

The SIU board also ordered an investigation into bidding on construction of a university housing project on the campus.

No federal funds are involved in the SWIU science building, the third of five major structures to be erected on the local campus.

Publix Super Markets, Inc.,

of the two companies offering eight light classes on a subscription basis, has withdrawn.

School life was not always an unrelenting grind. Friday afternoons sometimes were given over to camping, singing, spicing matches, recitations, declamations, songs and dialogues. In ciphering and spelling matches, pupils would pit each other to see who was best.

Another feature of those literary Society meetings was the presentation of a "paper" that carried a full stock of "wise words and jokes aimed at the more prominent of the younger set."

Under Study By Committee

Outline Of Proposed Dept. Of Public Works

Recent proposals for a Department of Public Works are to be established for the city of Granite City to revive the effort made in May 1961 by a SIU government study team.

The report, which cost the city several thousand dollars, was dumped after a year and the public works department as such, never materialized.

The city council Street and Alley committee, headed by Alderman G. H. Sternberg, presently is studying the SIU study and is expected to make a recommendation to the council in three or four months.

In the original report, the SIU government study experts recommended employment of a registered civil engineer as a full-time Director of Public Works, and that the department of public works include all street, sewer, refuse, culvert, motor fuel tax projects, humane department, and design and inspection.

* Delegates Responsibility *

"The organization of the public works function" the report pointed out, "enables the mayor to delegate the responsibility for day-to-day operations to a qualified department head responsible to him."

"Under the director would be three divisions. The streets and sewer division and the sanitation division would be headed by superintendents with duties and responsibilities similar to the present superintendent of streets and alleys."

"The engineering division would be headed by the director of public works as city engineer of the department. It would be staffed with one or two draftsmen. The engineering division could handle all the work now done by the consulting engineer's representation in the city."

"This would include all motor fuel tax maintenance estimates, design of pavement, sidewalk drainage structures, and subdivision improvements being done."

Still Use Consultant
Engineering consultant services will still be used on larger projects. The engineering division and the director's main office would be located in the city hall.

"An important part of the director's work would be to develop an improved set of maps of all city facilities and base maps for use in scheduling refuse collection and other activities."

"(The city discovered last week that a trunk of the Nameoki River sand seeped and had extended into an area outside the city limits. It was not shown on any city maps.)

"The director would be required to establish a reporting system, not only to give the council land public more information on public works activities, but also to enable him to study the work units and their equipment and manpower are being most economically employed."

"This work could be handled by an employee who would be located at the city garage. He also would keep records of equipment, tools and supplies, prepare purchase requisitions, keep the employee time and personnel records and be responsible for the gasoline pump."

GC Man Hit On Head, Robbed In St. Louis

Zelko Tritanji, 40, who resides at the YMCA Granite City, told East St. Louis police that he was hit on the head with a bottle and robbed of $100 while walking home from work, having given $33 to two men who were giving him directions early Sunday.

He said he asked one of them for directions at 2:30 a.m. at 15th street and Bond Avenue. The man got into his car and directed him to the 1600 block of Bond where they picked up a second man to assist with directions. He was walking down 16th street, Tritanji is employed at a St. Louis electrical firm.

American Bank Obtains Judgment Against McCoy

A judgment order in the amount of $401 has been entered in favor of the American National Bank against L. E. McCoy, 24, of 1608 Wilson avenue, currently facing charges of that and accepting money by cashing stolen payroll checks.

The ruling on Friday showed that the bank held two promissory notes for $100 each, dated Jan. 21, 1963, and $200 dated Jan. 25, 1963, and that both notes were in default. The amounts due in default are principal and $70 in attorney fees. The bank said the defendant owns real or personal property. McCoy has admitted the debts.
